

Options from the Media Center for Distance Learning

Podcast about the Coronavirus by Author Jason Reynolds Listen to the podcast. Make your own video showing the "To Do"s and the "Do Not"s in Relation to the Pandemic. 	Create a postcard about one of the places you have visited, using Canva. Make sure you share at least 3 things you learned from your visit. (Print, Save it to your Google Drive and then share it with your teacher, or save to a flash drive.) Over 30 Virtual Field Trips DARE You to Go Where You've Never Gone Before	YA Book Trailers to View Choose one of the book trailers available on this playlist. Look for the title of the book using the Open eBooks app on your iPad. Read this book and ENJOY!!
SebcBooks  READ a Book Offered FREE by SebcBooks. User: keepreading PW: sebc ID#: 1	ONLINE FIELD TRIP ART MUSEUM SCAVENGER HUNT 	 Need to learn more about something you're studying in Science Class? Check here for a video that might help. You may learn more than you bargained for.
Metropolitan Opera's Free Shows this Week (7:30 PM) 	Everybody LOVES LEGO! Click the link to see a copy of the daily Lego challenge. Take a picture of your creation or build.	The Ultimate Guide to Virtual Museum Resources, E-Learning, and Online Collections

Curated by Michelle Gaskins (for WCMS teachers and students for online learning)